The Enforcement Directorate (ED), which is also investigating the betting app Mahadev Online Book in an alleged Rs 5,500 crore money laundering scam, has found that Paytm was one of the payment gateways used by the accused to transact with customers...

During the investigation, the ED found that panel operators received the bets through a fraudulent UPI payment gateway and also transferred the winnings via the same Paytm and other UPI payment gateway routes. Bank accounts associated with Paytm UPI and other linked transaction gateways used in the betting operations were benami and bogus accounts.

The KYCs of unsuspecting individuals, often those who were poor, were exploited to open these bank accounts, to facilitate both accepting the bets and conducting hawala operations, which were layered through multiple bank accounts and in this manner, UPI panel operators siphoned off to funds to the Mahadev betting app founders Sourabh Chandrakar and Ravi Uppal.

ED investigation revealed that Chandrakar had monthly earnings of Rs 450 crore every month, at the average rate of Rs 30 lakh in earnings per panel every month. There are at least 2,000 panels of Mahadev Book, Reddy Anna and Fairplay which are operative as on date.

No time limit...

MLA Pratap Grehwal in a written question in the assembly on Friday asked whether or not the then chief minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan had, on June 10, 2023, announced at Garrison Ground of Jabalpur that Ladli Behna sum would be increased to Rs 1250 from Rs 1000 and if funds permitted then the money would be increased each time by Rs 250 and finally, the sum would be increased to Rs 3000.

PM's surprise visit...

The Prime Minister also spoke about the Abu Dhabi temple, for which he laid the foundation stone in 2018 and which he is set to visit next week. It is the first Hindu temple project in Abu Dhabi, the PM said, underscoring India's soft power.

permitted then the money would be increased each time by Rs 250 and finally, the sum would be increased to Rs 3000. Replying to the question, women and child development minister Nirmala Bhuria said that the announcement (of Shivraj Singh Chouhan) is not according to the question. The speech given by the then-CM on June 10 is available in public domain. Moreover, it is not possible to tell the time limit to provide Rs 3000 to Ladli Behnas.

Imran Khan's party-backed...

Authorities were earlier moving at a snail's pace to announce the election results that in a surprising development showed Khan's PTI supported independent candidates leading the show. PTI chairman Barrister Gohar Khan on Friday ruled out forging an alliance with the PPP and PML-N, saying his party is in a position to form a federal government on its own.

Jagan meets Modi, day after Naidu meets Shah

NEW DELHI

Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister Jagan Mohan Reddy on Friday met Prime Minister Narendra Modi and sought special category status for the state, party sources said, news agency PTI reported.

The Prime Minister's Office (PMO) also tweeted about the meeting between the Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister and PM Modi.

Jagan Mohan Reddy, who swept the 2019 state polls on the issue of special category status, has held several meetings with the Prime Minister and Union Home Minister Amit Shah over the issue in the past.

This meeting comes only a day after Telugu Desam Party (TDP) president N. Chandrababu Naidu met Union Home Minister Amit Shah and BJP president J.P. Nadda, stirring speculation that the two parties may join hands in Andhra Pradesh for the upcoming elections.

With the Congress gaining ground in Andhra Pradesh and the Telugu Desam Party (TDP) likely to tie up with the BJP, sources said Reddy rushed to the national capital to make a last-ditch effort.

prime minister in the Parliament complex and discussed pending projects and demands, including special category status to Andhra Pradesh," the sources added. The general and state assembly polls are likely to be held simultaneously in Andhra Pradesh before May.

SUPREME COURT SET ASIDE AP HC ORDER, CASTIGATING JAGAN

NEW DELHI: The Supreme Court on Friday quashed an Andhra Pradesh High Court order voicing its strong disapproval over the Supreme Court Collegium transferring two chief justices and castigating Chief Minister Y S Jagan Mohan Reddy for his apparent attempts to undermine it.

Bill passed to curb exam malpractices

NEW DELHI: Parliament on Friday passed a bill that aims to curb malpractices and irregularities in competitive examinations, and entails provisions for a maximum jail term of 10 years and a fine up to Rs 1 crore for offences.

The bill was passed through a voice vote in the Rajya Sabha, after amendments proposed by some opposition members were rejected. The bill was passed by the Lok Sabha on February 6.

Replying to a discussion on the Public Examinations (Prevention of Unfair Means) Bill, 2024 in the Rajya Sabha, Union minister Jitendra Singh said the youth power of the country is "vital" and asserted that the bill is meant to deter those who are playing with their future.

He asserted that merit cannot allowed to be hijacked by non-merit.

"We can't allow vital youth power of this country to be surrendered or sacrificed in the hands of a handful few...Very cautiously, we have kept the bona fide candidate out of purview of the law, be it a job aspirant or a student. So the message does not go that this new legislation is meant to harass the youth of this country."
